Mosman Park Is Main Threat To Rams

Mosman Park avenged their defeat at the hands of Melville a fortnight ago with an impressive victory over second placed Southern Port-Hamilton last Sunday.

It was a tough physical encounter between two of the strongest teams in the competition, but Mosman Park were able to get a three goal break early in the match and managed to maintain that throughout the game.

Mosman Parks victory confirmed their rating as the side most likely to challenge Melville for the 1984 premiership flag.

Southern Port and Cockburn, second and third on the premiership ladder before last Sunday, have both been beaten by Mosman Park in the second round and on current form Mosman Park must be favoured to grab a second semi-final berth with Melville.

Swan Valley, who have played some good football in the second round, found Melville very tough opposition last week. Melville still undefeated and showing no signs of complacency, took control from the outset and cruised away to a comfortable win.

Cockburn and Midland had to play in atrocious conditions at Midland Oval. Most of the ground was under water and this made scoring difficult. But Cockburn, who are now starting to climb out of a mid-season slump, managed to shake off a determined Midland and won convincingly.

Ian Earl, they will win.

Southern Port-Hamilton will bounce back to winning form when they take on Belmont at Forster Park.

Sam Maskos was unusually quiet last week, but he will rebound today and with support from wingman Peter Gonnella, ruckman John Florenca and centre-half-back Kevin Pausin they will be too strong for Belmont.

The other W.A.F.A match between Melville and Midland at Melville Reserve, brings together the top and bottom teams. Midland worked hard against Cockburn last week, but they lack the talent of the top team and will struggle against them today.

Today the W.A.F.A fixtures look cut and dried with three of the top teams taking on the three bottom sides.

But with the battle for a second semi-final berth intensifying, none of the leading teams can afford to take these games lightly.

Mosman Park may have had a good win over Southern Port last week, but they won't be relaxing today against Swan Valley at Tom Perrott Reserve.

Forget Swan Valley's effort last week. They have some good players in Doug Pendlebury, Neil Sumich, Geoff Perich Kevin Bostelman and John Zaknich. But Mosman Park are currently on a high and with reliable performers like Barry Haydinger, Bob Kershaw, Richard Strauss, Steve Rogers and

MELVILLE CAN STILL IMPROVE

The day started bright, the trip was cosy. we ventured to Swan Valley, looking forward to a lovely day in the country.

Our day got off to an average start with our colts losing to Cockburn. It is very interesting to note that we started the game with only 16 players due to illness and people unable to turn up. However the end result was still an encouraging performance and we look forward to meeting Cockburn again in a few weeks time on our own ground.

It was good to see Bib and Bub and the bear running the boundary although it was clear that the under 9's were running quicker.

Dad's army started with 18 players and were put to the test by the energetic Swan Valley side. The form currently being shown by Zig and Zag (Muir and Bottrell) is very encouraging and quite obviously they are knocking on the door for the league side. Lou "I got the hamstring injury from Quinn" Watts again put in a consistent performance. The scribe was impressed with the way Sedge used his head to get into the play and how Regan was first to offer to hold Sedge's money.

The performance of our league side was very encouraging at times - it is obvious that improvement will come when all the players get back. Consistent performances were put in by Gareth Stewart and Matt Tweedie.

Our President spoke to all players before the game and reminded them that to be successful both on and off the field was up to them and their supporters. Players are reminded of the player reunion on Wednesday 18th July starting at 7.30p.m. Our Dinner Dance is on the Saturday the 21st July with a top cabaret band "The Rock 'N Roll Show" and guest artist Chris De Haviland. Don't forget our pleasant Sunday Morning on the bye (22nd July). Special Guest entertainer is "Peter Dee" and of course the other usual will still apply.

We need your support to ensure success off the field as well as on it.

Players Trip To Big V Final

Southern Port-Hamilton players please return your Raffle tickets now in order to enable the trip committee time to complete details of the V.F.L. Grand Final Trip. Remember it is your responsibility for fund raising and all money raised will help to make it a cheap trip.

On the social scene the next event is a Players Review at the end of July. Club members check the notice board in the club rooms for more detail

Swan Valley Fight On

What a weekend. Things didn't look very good on selection night. Eight players on the injured list from the league team and four from the reserves team and we were playing the top side.

we didn't win either game, but to all the players who played on Sunday a job well done. You all gave 100% effort, which is all we can ask from you.

The reserves were badly depleted but were unlucky to lose.

Best Players were; Barry Waghorn, Dennis Parkes, Ashley Thomas, Tony Tassone.

The league team went down again against a better team. It was good to see the players fight it right out to the end. Some of the tackling and passages of play were great to watch.

We did have good players in patches, and to name a few - Kevin Bostleman, Peter Netherway, Geoff Perich, Doug Pendlebury, Mick Jose, Ken Girdlestone, Peter Garbin, John Bilcharis, John Zaknich.

Today we play Mosman Park and if we take a close look at our players who played last week and the players returning from injury, then we are good enough to beat any team.

A big thank-you to Mrs Perich for doing the canteen last week.

Best of luck to both teams today. Remember however that you make your own luck fellas.

FRANK POWER

Frank has been umpiring for 22 years both as a field umpire and at the last as a goal umpire. During this period Frank has umpired in the Goldfields, league panel W.A.F.L., and commenced with the W.A.F.A. in 1978.

He is a most consistent performer and always is willing to help others. His other favourite interest is bowls and was recently elected Secretary of the Nollamara Bowling Club.

Frank has done over 100 games with us, so 200 games for him is not all that far away.
